K. N. CHANNA, I. A. S.,
Chief Secretary.

Simla-4, the 17th March, 1956

No. Pub-88-25/54.—The Lieut.-Governor, Himachal Pradesh is pleased to constitute an Accreditation Committee consisting of the following officials and non-officials to advise the Government regarding the accreditation of press correspondents to the Himachal Pradesh Government:—

1. The Chief Minister, Himachal Pradesh.
2. The Chief Secretary to Government Himachal Pradesh.
3. The Director, Public Relations and Tourism, H. P.
4. Two M.L.A.s.
5. One representative from the Press.

The functions of the committee are purely advisory. The names of the non-official members will be notified separately.

PREM RAJ,
Assistant Secretary.

Simla-4, the 17th March, 1956

No. Pub.-88-25/54.—The following rules are adopted for accreditation of press correspondents in Himachal Pradesh.

“Rules for accreditation of Press Correspondents representing Indian Newspapers and News Agencies”.

1. These rules apply to the accreditation to the Government of Himachal Pradesh of all press correspondents representing Indian newspapers, news agencies, etc.

2. An application for accreditation should be submitted by the editor of the newspaper, agency etc., concerned to the Director, Public Relations, Himachal Pradesh, Simla. Full details about the professional experience of the correspondent should be furnished with the application for accreditation. The Director, Public Relations will refer the application to the Accreditation Committee consisting of:—

- (1) Chief Minister.
- (2) Chief Secretary.
- (3) Director, Public Relations.
- (4) Two M.L.A.s.
- (5) One representative from the Press.

3. The correspondent of a newspaper, news agency, etc., should fulfil the following conditions for accreditation:—

- (i) his residence should be at the Headquarters of the State or in the district for which he applies to be accredited;
- (ii) his full time occupation should be the profession of journalism;
- (iii) at the time of application he should have spent not less than two consecutive years in the profession of journalism and should be a person of sufficient experience and standing to be able to discharge his duties in a competent and responsible manner.

4. In the case of news agencies etc., the factors to be taken into consideration to determine accreditation are:—

- (a) nature and type of the agency;
- (b) method of distribution of its services;
- (c) centres or the news papers catered for.

5. In the case of newspaper, the factors to be taken into consideration to determine accreditation are:—

- (a) nature and type of newspaper;
- (b) periodicity and regularity of publication;
- (c) the influence and circulation of the newspaper.

6. Normally, a newspaper will not be entitled to have more than one accredited correspondent at one place. The number of representatives for a news agency etc. will be determined by its requirements and the limitations of facilities which the Public Relations Department can provide.

7. (i) A correspondent will be liable to disaccreditation if:

- (a) he uses information and facilities accorded to him for non-journalistic purposes;
- (b) in the course of his duties as correspondent, he behaves in an undignified or unprofessional manner;
- (c) he ignores or violates the conditions on which information and facilities are provided by Government or acts contrary to any provisions of these rules.

(ii) Action under rule 7 (i) will be taken by the Director, Public Relations under orders of the Chief Secretary after the matter has been referred to the Committee mentioned in rule 2.

8. When an accredited correspondent ceases to represent a news agency and or news papers on behalf of which he is accredited, the fact should be brought to the notice of the Director, Public Relations, in writing by the correspondent as well as by the editor concerned within fifteen days. Failing this, facilities accorded to the newspaper may without following the procedure prescribed in Rule 7 (ii) be withdrawn by the Director, Public Relations and the correspondent, would be liable to be refused any facility thereafter.

9. Newspapers, agencies and correspondents can make a representation to the Govt. against any decision taken under the provisions of these rules. Such representations should reach the Chief Secretary to Government, Himachal Pradesh, Simla, within two calendar months from the date on which the decision in question was communicated to the newspaper, agency or correspondent concerned.

10. The list of accredited correspondents will be reviewed periodically, preferably once in a year, by the Director, Public Relations in consultation with the Accreditation Committee in the light of changes in respect of the accredited correspondents and/or newspapers and agencies represented. It shall be approved by the Chief Secretary before issue.

11. Accreditation is personal and not transferable.

12. Accreditation does not confer any official status on a correspondent. Government merely recognises that the accredited correspondent represents the newspaper or news agency which employs him. Correspondents should not have letter-heads or visiting cards with the words "Accredited to the Government of Himachal Pradesh".

13. A Press Card will be issued to a correspondent when he is accredited. Admission to special functions, including Press Conferences will, however, be governed by invitation.

14. Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules Government would be free to take any action warranted by circumstances in matters relating to accreditation and disaccreditation, and in all cases Government's decision shall be final.

15. These rules shall come into force from

Specimen card referred to in para 13 of the rules.
